✠ The Trouble Tree

She hired a plumber to help her restore an old farmhouse, and he had just finished a rough first day on the job: a flat tyre made him lose an hour of work, his electric drill gave up, and his ancient truck refused to start and caused hours of delay and frustration. While she drove him home, he sat in stony silence. On arriving, he invited her in to meet his family. As they walked toward the front door, he paused briefly at a small tree, touching the tips of the branches with both hands. When opening the door, he underwent an amazing transformation. His tanned face was wreathed in smiles, and he hugged his two small children and gave his wife a kiss. Afterward, he walked back to the car. They passed the tree, and her curiosity got the better of her. She asked him about what she had seen him do earlier. "Oh, that's my trouble tree," he replied. "I know I can't help having troubles on the job, but one thing's for sure; those troubles don't belong in the house with my wife and the children. So, I just hang them up on the tree every night when I come home and ask God to take care of them. Then in the morning, I pick them up again. Funny thing is," he smiled, "when I come out in the morning to pick 'em up, there aren't nearly as many as I remember hanging up the night before."

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come spiritually into my soul
so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever.

Amen.

PLEASE TAKE YOUR COPY OF THE BULLETIN HOME WITH YOU OR PASS IT ON TO SOMEONE ELSE. THANKS!

World Mission Sunday Next Weekend

World Mission Sunday is this Sunday. Pope Francis is inviting parishes around the world to join in the life-changing, life-giving and life-saving efforts of his missions. Priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists in the Pope's missions offer education in desolate areas, share the Gospel in some of the most remote areas of the world, provide crucial medical care to those who could otherwise not afford it and so much more. Pope Francis has chosen as the theme for this year's celebration: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). In his message to all Catholics about this year's World Mission Sunday, said, "To be on mission is to be willing to think as Christ does, to believe with Him that those around us are also my brothers and sisters." Please help us share this call to prayer and financial help for the Church's missionary work this World Mission Sunday. Your voice—your "speaking"—can make a world of difference for those serving in the Pope's missions. Our annual special collections for the Missions will take place in both St. Bride's and St. Peter's next weekend the 30th and 31st October.

Mary in October

Being a mother myself, I relate to Mary's motherly love, but, at the same time, I venerate her because of her intercession. I admire her love for Jesus and for others, her silence, her humility, her motherhood and her obedience to God as described in the Scriptures. I see Mary as a role model the way a child looks up to her mother. Mary's spiritual motherhood means that I can confide in her the same way I have confided in my mother my whole life but more so. It feels easy to talk to Mary in my prayers, especially about my struggles, my pain and my worries, for she knows the struggles of life and human suffering. It also feels easy to ask her to pray for me when I can't or when I feel my faith is weak. The most beautiful aspect of Mary's love is that she always, no exception, takes me to Jesus. It is as if she wipes my tears, cleaning my blurry eyes so I can see him. I have experienced her intercession in many aspects in my life, but particularly in my family; it is a devotion to Mary that brought my husband and I together, and that has kept us together for 18 years. Then, my children came, after asking Mary's intercession. Most recently, after my father passed away last year from COVID - it was such an unexpected and quick death that affected me greatly - it was by Mary's intercession that I have been able to get through it and see the hand of God.

Just for a Laugh... A faithful parishioner Gladys attended Mass one particular Sunday. The sermon seemed to go on forever, and many in the congregation fell asleep. After the Mass, to be social, she walked up to a very sleepy looking gentleman, in an attempt to revive him from his stupor, extended her hand in greeting, and said, "Hello, I'm Gladys Dunn." To which the gentleman replied, "You're not the only one!"
