✠ Power to Change

The following account is written by Noel Kenny, one of those who featured in the Power to Change campaign in Ireland in 2002. "Around 1979 the heroin epidemic swept through our community, the inner city of Dublin, and all the young people ended up hooked on it. I had two brothers that became addicts and after seeing the devastation it brought into our home and into their lives, I made a vow that I would never be addicted to anything. When I was 18, however, I started hanging out with a young man named Mick and we smoked some dope together. I was sort of an inward type and this gave me confidence—something I needed in my life. For the next four years it just became my everything. The things I had dreaded about my brothers' life had come upon me. I started to dislike myself and everything I was doing. In 1989, Mick came strolling through the flats [condos] once again. He'd been away for some time, but all of a sudden he was there with a Bible in his hand saying "Jesus Christ can change your life." We thought, "Look what drugs have done to poor Mick. Now he thinks he's God." With the gang it was easy to jeer and to slag him off, but when I was on my own, I knew he had something that I needed in my life. There was a peace in Mick's face that I didn't see in anyone else's in my community. So I invited him up to my flat to smoke some dope, for old time's sake. He came up, but instead of doing drugs, he told me about the love of God. "If I did believe there was a God he sure wouldn't come down to the flats [condos] and have anything to do with all of us," I said, secretly hoping that was not true. I kept saying to Mick, "What do I have to give him? Do I have to give God my drugs? My money?" But Mick said, "No, he loves you just the way you are. But he also loves you enough to change you from the way you are." Eventually, I committed my life to Christ. I didn't have any great revelation, but I just knew my sins were forgiven. I just knew! When I go to bed at night, I have a peace in my heart. I have peace in my mind. I can put my head down to sleep and know that I'm going to wake up in the morning with no shame, no guilt and no sin hanging over my life. This is the love, this is the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ. I gave up drugs for ever, I have since had the privilege of leading many drug addicts and other hurting people to a personal relationship with Jesus. For me this demonstrates the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to change lives."

Special Prayer for the Synod of Bishops in Rome

The People of God have been on the move since Pope Francis convened the whole Church in Synod in October 2021" (Instrumentum laboris, I), and now we have reached another milestone in this process that began with the consultation of the People of God. In a few days, the Holy Father will open the first session of the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, "For a Synodal Church. Communion, Participation, Mission." The Synod is, above all, an event of prayer and listening that involves not only the members of the Synodal Assembly, but every baptised person and every particular Church.

Please remember, strictly tea and coffee only. Thank you.

Three Reasons Why You Should Turn to Our Lady of Sorrows

When you imagine the Blessed Virgin Mary, what do you see? A beautiful, peaceful face, and hands folded in prayer? This portrait undoubtedly captures the essence of Our Lady, who was full of grace and eager to carry out God's will. But there is another side to Mary: intense agony. She witnessed her son's brutal crucifixion and the jeers and hatred He received from onlookers. This fulfilled the prophecy of Simeon who — while holding the Christ child — told Mary that "a sword will pierce through your own soul" (Luke 2:35). Yes, Mary was no stranger to suffering, which is why the Church invokes her under the title of Our Lady of Sorrows. We commemorate Our Lady of Sorrows every year on September 15. Here are three reasons why you should turn to her in your sadness and desolation.

1. She experienced heartbreak more intensely than any of us. No human being loved as much as Mary. Being free from sin, her love was unencumbered by selfishness or despair. But the greater the love, the greater the wound. We know the intensity of a mother's love, but no mother has ever loved a child as perfectly as Our Lady loved her divine son. Therefore, her heartbreak at his crucifixion was — in a sense — the greatest heartbreak in history. She experienced the depths of human suffering, and so is eager to help you in your moments of pain.

2. She is your mother. The Church tells us that when Jesus gave Mary to St. John to be his mother, He was also giving her to all of us. As your mother, she is attentive to your needs. She only waits on you to ask for her help. Take heart from her words to St. Juan Diego: "Listen and understand, my littlest son, let nothing frighten and afflict you or trouble your heart. Am I not here, I, who am your mother? Are you not under my shadow? Am I not your health?"

3. She never gave way to despair and now enjoys the eternal joy of heaven. Don't let suffering undermine your faith in God. Easier said than done, right? Yet Our Lady proves the words of St. Paul that "Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Rom. 8:38-39). She persevered in her faith, and is now reunited with her son forever in heaven! We shall do the same, if only we stay true to our Savior while wandering the dark paths of this life. She'll obtain that grace for us if we only ask!

JUST FOR A LAUGH... 🤔🤔🤔

Darlene was sitting on her grandfather's lap as he read her a bedtime story. From time to time, she would take her eyes off the book and reach up to touch his wrinkled cheek. She was alternately stroking her own cheek, then his again. Finally she spoke up, 'Grandpa, did God make you?' 'Yes, darling,' he answered, 'God made me a long time ago.' 'Oh,' Darlene paused, 'Grandpa, did God make me too?' 'Yes, indeed, poppet,' he said, 'God made you just a little while ago.' Feeling their respective faces again, Darlene observed, 'God's getting better at it, isn't he?'
