✠ The Christmas Candles

Once upon a time, many, many years ago, an old cobbler and his wife lived in a tiny cottage. This humble shoemaker had few worldly possessions, but whatever he owned he shared with others. Symbolic of his generosity and love of his neighbour was a lighted candle he placed in the window of his cottage which, every night, shone forth as a welcome sign of hospitality to any weary traveller in search of shelter. War and near destruction fell upon this little village - but never once did the little candle fail to send its beams as a message of hope and cheer to all. Somehow, the little cobbler and his wife suffered far less than the other villagers. It seemed there was a special love guarding both of them. Discouraged and weary, the village peasants gathered together one evening to discuss the cobbler's fortune. "Surely there is something special about him: He is always spared from all misfortunes. What does he do that we do not do?" "Perhaps it is his little candle!", said one of the villagers. "Let us all put a candle in our windows too, this Christmas, and see if that is the mysterious secret!" Now, it so happened that the day of the peasant's meeting was the day before Christmas, and the first night that a candle was lit in the window of every home was Christmas Eve. The candles burned all that night. When morning came, a soft mantle of snow covered all of the village and an air of hope and contentment filled the hearts of all the villagers. Before the first ray of the morning sun, a messenger rode into the village to bring the great news - the war was over, peace had come! Tiny silver church bells chimed - never before had there been such a feeling of Christmas glory and joy as there was on that day. The peasants were awed: "It was the candles," they whispered. "It was the candles! They have guided the newborn Saviour to our very doorsteps and have brought an answer to all of our prayers. We must never again fail to light our candles when we celebrate the Miracle of the Holy Night!"

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
(All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

RECONCILIATION SERVICES FOR ADVENT

We have the opportunity to attend a Reconciliation Service and Confession on three dates before Christmas:

Wednesday, 13th December at 2pm at St Mary's Saltcoats;

Thursday 14th December at St Peter in Chains Ardrossan;

Friday 15th December at St John's Stevenston.

You are personally invited to come along and "clear out the stable" before Christmas.

WE NEED YOU!

It is very important that we keep music in our Liturgy. If we don't recruit more volunteer musicians and cantors we will be faced with having some Masses without music. We have been blessed with many talented parishioners! If you would like to be a cantor, a choir member, are a musician, or if you are available to volunteer for any of our ministries please speak to Father Duncan or contact the office for further details.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Harry Sammons, Peter Ross, Tony Smith, Maria Hilferty, Betty Fitzpatrick, Maria Dorrian.

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE TO 600 SEMINARIANS IN FRANCE

[Excerpt from 2nd December 2023] - "His Holiness Pope Francis gives thanks for the singular call that the Lord has addressed to you, having chosen you from among so many others, loved you with a privileged love and set you apart; and he also gives thanks for the courageous response that you wish to give to this call. It is indeed a cause for thanksgiving, hope and joy to see that many young people — and not so young people — still dare, with the generosity and boldness of faith, and despite the difficult times facing our Churches and our secularised Western societies, to follow the Lord in His service and that of their brothers and sisters. At the heart of your identity, configured to the Lord Jesus, is celibacy. Priests are celibate — and they wish to be — simply because Jesus was celibate. The requirement of celibacy is not primarily theological, but mystical: may this be understood by he who is able (cf. Matthew 19:12). In order to live this demanding, and sometimes harsh, priestly perfection, and face the challenges and temptations you will encounter along the way, there is only one solution, dear seminarians: nurture a strong, living and authentic personal relationship with Jesus. Love Jesus more than anything else, let His love be enough for you, and you will emerge victorious from every crisis and every difficulty. For if Jesus is enough for me, I have no need of great consolations in ministry, or of great pastoral success, or of feeling at the centre of extensive relational networks; if Jesus is enough for me, I have no need of disordered affections, or of notoriety, or of having great responsibilities, or of pursuing a career, or of shining in the eyes of the world, or of being better than others; if Jesus is enough for me, I have no need of great material possessions, or of enjoying the seductions of the world, or of security for my future. If, on the contrary, I succumb to any of these temptations or weaknesses, it is because Jesus is not enough for me and that I lack love."

POPE FRANCIS' MESSAGE TO THE COP28 IN DUBAI

[Excerpt from 2nd December 2023] - "I am with you because the destruction of the environment is an offence against God, a sin that is not only personal but also structural, one that greatly endangers all human beings, especially the most vulnerable in our midst and threatens to unleash a conflict between generations. I am with you to raise the question which we must answer now: Are we working for a culture of life or a culture of death? To all of you I make this heartfelt appeal: Let us choose life! Let us choose the future! May we be attentive to the cry of the earth, may we hear the plea of the poor, may we be sensitive to the hopes of the young and the dreams of children! We have a grave responsibility: to ensure that they not be denied their future. How much energy is humanity wasting on the numerous wars presently in course, such as those in Israel and Palestine, in Ukraine and in many parts of the world: conflicts that will not solve problems but only increase them! How many resources are being squandered on weaponry that destroys lives and devastates our common home! Once more I present this proposal: "With the money spent on weapons and other military expenditures, let us establish a global fund that can finally put an end to hunger" (Encyclical Letter Fratelli Tutti, 262; cf. SAINT PAUL VI, Encyclical Letter Populorum Progressio, 51) and carry out works for the sustainable development of the poorer countries and for combating climate change. In the end, the purpose of power is to serve. It is useless to cling to an authority that will one day be remembered for its inability to take action when it was urgent and necessary to do so. Let us leave behind our divisions and unite our forces! And with God's help, let us emerge from the dark night of wars and environmental devastation in order to turn our common future into the dawn of a new and radiant day."

Many Thanks for your support and generosity!

Just for a Laugh... The Parish Priest was completing a temperance homily: with great expression he said, "If I had all the beer in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river." With even greater emphasis he said, "And if I had all the wine in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river." And then finally, he said, "And if I had all the whisky in the world, I'd take it and throw it into the river." He sat down. The organist then stood up very cautiously and announced with a smile, "For our closing hymn, let us sing Hymn Number 365: "Shall We Gather at the River."
